

YOU ARE INVITED TO LIVE VIEWINGS OF DRCT'S VIDEO TRAINING SERIES:

Using Supported Decision Making in Employment

Supported Decision Making (SDM) happens when people make their own decisions with the help of friends, family, and professionals. SDM can be helpful when looking for or keeping a job. This video training series includes interviews with individuals and family members who share their experience with SDM and employment.

* Join us via Zoom at 10:00 AM or 6:00 PM on:

- SESSION 1: AN OVERVIEW OF SDM
  - Wednesday, September 3, 2025
Q&A with special guest speaker,
Morgan Whitlatch, Director of SDM Initiatives,
Center for Public Representation (CPR)
- SESSION 2: INFORMED CHOICE AND EMPLOYMENT
  - Wednesday, October 8, 2025
- SESSION 3: THE JOURNEY FROM SCHOOL TO EMPLOYMENT
  - Wednesday, November 5, 2025
- SESSION 4: THE JOURNEY TO EMPLOYMENT IN ADULTHOOD
  - Wednesday, December 3, 2025

There will be time for Q & A after viewing each session. ASL and Spanish interpretation will be provided. Additional accommodations may be requested upon registration.

To register, visit www.DisRightsCT.org/SDM-Video-Series

This video training series was developed in collaboration with the Center for Public Representation.

Center for Public
Representation

<https://CenterForPublicRep.org>
<https://SupportedDecisions.org>